Destination:

Santo Domingo: The capital of the Dominican Republic was the first city founded in America. Its old part, declared a World Heritage Site, invites travellers to visit its museums, monuments, colonial houses, etc. Its cathedral is well-known for being the first constructed in America and for its peculiar synthesis of Romanic, Gothic and Renaissance styles. Santo Domingo is like an open museum, where one can experience adventures in the cultural and political heart of the country. Here is where the history of the continent's colonization and the rhythm of merengue come together to fascinate travellers from all over.

Dominican Republic: The Dominican Republic is situated in the Antilles Archipelago. The Atlantic Ocean is to its north, the Caribbean Sea and Antilles Sea to its south, the Canal de la Mona that separates the island with Puerto Rico to the east and the Republic of Haiti to the west. It has a territory of 48.442 km<sup>2</sup> and a population of more than 9 million inhabitants. The government is located in the capital of the country, Santo Domingo de Guzmán. The country has a predominantly tropical climate and rain is abundant. The average temperature is between 25 and 30 °C. The Dominican Republic is a country that continues to develop and depends mainly on agriculture, commerce, services and especially tourism.
