6. DESTINATION

Magalluf:

Magalluf is one of the most important tourist centres of Majorca. Situated within the municipality of Calvià on the Western coast of the island, it is located only 16 km from the city of Palma. During the summer months, thousands of people fill its hotels and apartments to enjoy a vacation on the sea. In Magalluf everything is focused on leisure activities for vacationers and the area offers every type of service and attraction imaginable. A wide variety of restaurants, bars and cafeterias offer something for everyone. The summer months also offer a vibrant nightlife every day of the week, as the area is known for its great number of pubs and discotheques. Magalluf offers a fabulous location for a fun and entertaining holiday.

Majorca:

Known as the "Island of Calm", Majorca is an island which, over the years of its history, has brought together more than enough features to be able to show travellers all the horizons of the Latin world. The almost mythical landscapes of this part of the Mediterranean inhabited successively by Carthaginians, Romans and Moors offer a full program of trips in which you can discover landscapes of a surprisingly contrasted variety: you can admire the abrupt mountains of the Sierra de Tramuntana, the vast central plain and the most beautiful series of cliffs, coves, bays and sandy beaches that make up one of the most visited coasts of the entire Mediterranean.

Visits and Excursions*:

- Trip around the Island (Inca Market) The tour leaves from Inca in order to visit the market. The excursion includes a visit to the Lluch Monastery and continues towards the port of Sóller by means of the Puig Major and continues to the majestic Northern mountain chain. A panoramic stop is made for lunch (not included). The Valley of the Orange Trees and an arrival to Valldemossa with an additional stop and optional visit to la Cartuja are also in the itinerary.
- Sineu Market-Formentor Rural Majorca and the "payés" (country) market of Sineu, unique on the island, are visited. Alcudia and the Roman city of Bahía de Pollença are also planned. Tour allows guests to have lunch (not included), a visit to the beach and free time. A stop in a panoramic setting as well as a stop in a leather factory in Inca are also planned. (Optional boat ride from the Port of de Pollença to Formentor).
- Alcudia-Formentor-Port of Pollença The trip heads toward Alcudia by means of the island's plains and passes through the most fertile agricultural area of Majorca. After visiting the modern port of Alcudia, that was once the most important Roman City, and the market in Pollença, the trip continues to Formentor. In Formentor there is plenty of time to swim, eat (not included) and go for a walk. During the return trip, a stop is made in Inca in order to visit a typical leather factory. (Optional boat ride from the Port of de Pollença to Formentor).
- Drach Caves -P. Cristo Leaving in the direction of Manacor, with a stop in the Porto Cristo pearl factory, the tour includes a visit to the Drach Caves. Lunch is not included. Sa Coma is visited and a stop during the way back in a factory of handmade Majorcan glass is also planned. Liquor tasting.
- Grand Tour of the Island by Train and Boat The excursion combines car, boat and train. Passing through the valley of Lluc and along a winding and spectacular road, the tour continues to Calobra and the stream of Pares. Free time. Later the tour heads towards the port of Sóller (in the case of rough sea, the route will be made in car by means of the Puig Major). The return from Sóller to Palma is made in the famous and picturesque train of Sóller. The routes of this excursion may also be made the other way around.
- Trip around the Island by Boat The trip heads toward Lluc by land and after visiting the Monastery, it heads towards Calobra and the stream of Pares, where the tour is continued by boat until the Port of Sóller. The return trip is made through the Valley of the Orange Trees until Valldemossa.
- The Farm. A visit to an old convent that has been converted into an estate for a taste of XIX century Majorca. Typical Majorcan dancing and a tasting of typical products of the island.
- Aquarium of Palma Discover the tropic: Coral reefs and vibrant coloured fish live together in this spectacular underwater oasis, considered one of the most beautiful and complex habitats of the world. Live the Great Blue: Feel the immensity of the Great Blue, an inhospitable world full of sharks. Feel the Jungle: Go deep into the jungle along dark paths and follow the river until reaching the fresh water spring. Interactive Gardens: In the interactive gardens one may see, touch and feel some of the most affectionate animals of the park.
